

Interview Questions – Suggestions

- Your background information refers to a crisis in our education system. Can you explain what you mean by this?
- What services do you offer?
- How do you think your services will help address some of the issues facing our college system? Potential students? Current students?
- How does your experience enable you to empower students to attend and stay in college?
- Who will benefit from your coaching?
- How do you involve parents in the coaching process?
- What partnerships are you making in the business community to help get these important messages out?
- Why did you decide to start this company?
- What is your dream for the company?
- If you could leave one message with today's youth, what would it be?