PRACTICAL WAYS TO MAKE IT THROUGH THE LOOPHOLES

"Pack your bags – you're going to college!"

It is how parents deliver the punch to their student that will get the desired results.

If the student has been avoiding college, good luck, parents! If the student wants to attend college but isn't prepared due to mediocre grades, or financial circumstances – wait no more! Tanya Knight International has the skills and finesse to gear up both types of students for a new adventure with a promising future, with financial aid and other help on the way!

What do they mean I need $200,000 for college! I'm not going to an Ivy League school!

Research indicates that college tuition has increased by 40 percent over the past five years, and this amount does not cover everything at many colleges. But be assured - financial aid is on the way for well-intended people like you! Learn how to apply for Pell grants and Scholarship funds, and how to research ways to pay for your education – at no cost to you! Tanya Knight International teaches through motivational speaking engagements or one-on-one sessions how students can help themselves.

I was an overachiever in high school, but can't seem to get into the college of my choice!

Being an honor student in high school does not mean he or she will be admitted into the college of their choice. Tanya Knight International offers aspiring students little-known facts and strategies about how to penetrate the college "admissions" process, enhancing students' ability to face their future – through early preparation and retention.

Tanya Knight offers "The advice of a lifetime – because it will change your life."

Life is too short for you to hate it! For those who see themselves in a dead-end job, young and older alike, or those who see their dreams vanishing, this advice will teach them how to get into college – regardless of age. Assistance through Tanya Knight International prepares one for college, the ever-changing future with better pay, in a job to be enjoyed. She will fire the imagination!

"I'm going to school!" – the words a husband seldom wants to hear.

So you're 53! You may end up with instructors younger than yourself – but did you know that college is a possibility for everyone? No one should go through life stuck in a job Uncle Larry put them in, or an environment they hate. College is a stimulating learning environment for people who want to find out more about the world. Tanya Knight International teaches people to find their way and make their contribution to life through higher education
